

Comment Info: =====

General Comment: I think the combination of treating meat and poultry Lab Accreditation goes right in line with HACCP and SSOP regs into consolidation. After all food safety does not change from species. I think we need to clarify the standardized values in class of residue. Are these for various species?